

-In response to your review on the cross-ownership ban:

Thank you for once again putting the interest of corporate profits over that of the citizen. As if the news isn't biased enough already, now you move to let companies consolidate and focus their interests even further. Far from being patriotic, you are moving this country into the realm of Fascism.